Application Essay

In a maximum of two pages, tell us why this scholarship is important to you and why the Rotary Club of Sammamish should select you for an award. Applicants should address the Criteria for Selection described in the Program Overview, and provide specific examples from their experience in support of their application. Applicants are encouraged to present a balanced essay drawing on (as is relevant) their community service, charitable efforts, work experience, organizational leadership, academics, scholastic activities, achievements, recognition, personal history, and anything else illustrative of the applicant. A compelling narrative is preferred to an encyclopedic listing.
